Teresa Inge

Teresa grew up reading Nancy Drew mysteries. Combining her love of reading mysteries and writing professional articles led to her writing short fiction and a novel.

Today, she doesn't carry a rod like her idol but she hot rods. She juggles assisting two busy executives and is the president of the Sisters in Crime, Mystery by the Sea chapter.

Teresa is one of several authors in this collection of short stories, each blending a baffling mystery and a glass (or more) of cabernet. When eighteen mystery writers combine their talents, the result is the perfect "flight" of stories that range from the light-bodied puzzles to sparkling cozy mysteries to darker, heavier tales of deceit and murder. While cabernet is the featured wine, this anthology will appeal to connoisseurs of all varietals-in both wine preference and mystery style.

Christine M. Bacon, Ph.D.

With her marriage in trouble author Dr. Christine Bacon prayed for her husband to die.

During their four-year separation, her husband pursued a reconciliation. Christine realized reunification would mean changing everything—ineffective communication styles, bad habits, attitudes and levels of commitment. Bacon vowed to herself that “this second time must be forever.” Her personal trials, despair and fighting spirit fueled a new quest to discover the formula for extremely happy couples.

Dr. Bacon interviewed nearly 100 Super Couples to discover whether extremely happy marriages were a matter of fate or formula. Did they get lucky, or was “super” something that could be learned? Her surprising findings inspired a turnaround in her now happy and fulfilling marriage and have led to the same for thousands of other couples. Seekers who delve into The Super Couple will access this formula, glean fresh insights to the “six faulty assumptions” that often lead to marital failure, and embrace a practical and inspiring redefinition of love that will reinvigorate a tepid or troubled marriage and transform it to terrific.
